INTRODUCTION

The present document has been prepared by the Secretariat at the request of the Ad Hoc Committee to Study the Peaceful Uses of the Sea-Bed and the Ocean Floor beyond the Limits of National Jurisdiction, formulated in the statement made by its Chairman at the ninth meeting, on 27 March 1968 (A/AC.135/5). In this text, the Secretariat was requested to furnish the Legal Working Group established by the Ad Hoc Committee with documentation which would include, inter alia: a statement of existing international agreements concerning the sea-bed and the ocean floor, and the sub-soil thereof, underlying the high seas beyond the limits of present national jurisdiction and the extent and nature of State claims in this field; a survey of bilateral and multilateral treaties concluded among coastal States as to the continental shelf.

The present document reproduces, under appropriate headings, the principal provisions of a number of treaties of a general, regional and bilateral character having a direct or indirect bearing on the areas mentioned in the foregoing paragraph.

It should be noted that the present document includes only the regional and bilateral treaties which have been provided or indicated by Governments in response to the circular letters addressed to them by the Secretary-General on 16 March 1967, 26 January and 9 April 1968.

An annex sets out the present status of the general multilateral conventions included in this document.

I. DEFINITION AND FREEDOM OF THE HIGH SEAS

Convention on the High Seas, done
at Geneva on 29 April 1958 1/

Article 1

The term "high seas" means all parts of the sea that are not included in the territorial sea or in the internal waters of a State.

Article 2

The high seas being open to all nations, no State may validly purport to subject any part of them to its sovereignty. Freedom of the high seas is exercised under the conditions laid down by these articles and by the other rules of international law. It comprises, inter alia, both for coastal and non-coastal States:

- (1) Freedom of navigation;
- (2) Freedom of fishing;
- (3) Freedom to lay submarine cables and pipelines;
- (4) Freedom to fly over the high seas.

These freedoms, and others which are recognized by the general principles of international law, shall be exercised by all States with reasonable regard to the interests of other States in their exercise of the freedom of the high seas.

II. LIMITS AND SCOPE OF NATIONAL JURISDICTION OVER THE TERRITORIAL SEA 1/

A. MULTILATERAL TREATIES OF A GENERAL CHARACTER

Convention on the Territorial Sea and the Contiguous
Zone, done at Geneva on 29 April 1958 2/

Part I

Territorial Sea

Section I. General

Article 1

1. The sovereignty of a State extends, beyond its land territory and its internal waters, to a belt of sea adjacent to its coast, described as the territorial sea.
2. This sovereignty is exercised subject to the provisions of these articles and to other rules of international law.

Article 2

The sovereignty of a coastal State extends to the air space over the territorial sea as well as to its bed and sub-soil.

Section II. Limits of the territorial sea

Article 3

Except where otherwise provided in these articles, the normal baseline for measuring the breadth of the territorial sea is the low-water line along the coast as marked on large-scale charts officially recognized by the coastal State.

1/ Although the present study deals with the Sea-Bed and the Ocean Floor beyond the Limits of Present National Jurisdiction, there are included in this and in the following section materials relating to the limits of the Territorial Sea and the Continental Shelf, which may have an indirect bearing on the subject.

2/ Ibid., vol. 516, p. 206.

Article 4

1. In localities where the coast line is deeply indented and out into, or if there is a fringe of islands along the coast in its immediate vicinity, the method of straight baselines joining appropriate points may be employed in drawing the baseline from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured.

2. The drawing of such baselines must not depart to any appreciable extent from the general direction of the coast, and the sea areas lying within the lines must be sufficiently closely linked to the land domain to be subject to the régime of internal waters.

4. Where the method of straight baselines is applicable under the provisions of paragraph 1, account may be taken, in determining particular baselines, of economic interests peculiar to the region concerned, the reality and the importance of which are clearly evidenced by a long usage.

Article 6

The outer limit of the territorial sea is the line every point of which is at a distance from the nearest point of the baseline equal to the breadth of the territorial sea.

Article 7

1. This article relates only to bays the coasts of which belong to a single State.

2. For the purposes of these articles, a bay is a well-marked indentation whose penetration is in such proportion to the width of its mouth as to contain landlocked waters and constitute more than a mere curvature of the coast. An indentation shall not, however, be regarded as a bay unless its area is as large as, or larger than, that of the semi-circle whose diameter is a line drawn across the mouth of that indentation.

3. For the purpose of measurement, the area of an indentation is that lying between the low-water mark around the shore of the indentation and a line joining the low-water marks of its natural entrance points. Where, because of the presence of islands, an indentation has more than one mouth, the semi-circle shall be drawn on a line as long as the sum total of the lengths of the lines across the different mouths. Islands within an indentation shall be included as if they were part of the water areas of the indentation.

4. If the distance between the low-water marks of the natural entrance points of a bay does not exceed twenty-four miles, a closing line may be drawn between these two low-water marks, and the waters enclosed thereby shall be considered as internal waters.

5. Where the distance between the low-water marks of the natural entrance points of a bay exceeds twenty-four miles, a straight baseline of twenty-four miles shall be drawn within the bay in such a manner as to enclose the maximum area of water that is possible with a line of that length.

6. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to so-called "historic" bays, or in any case where the straight baseline system provided for in article 4 is applied.

B. MULTILATERAL TREATIES OF A REGIONAL CHARACTER

1. Agreement /Declaration on the Maritime Zone/ 1/ between Chile, Ecuador and Peru, signed at the First Conference on the Exploitation and Conservation of the Maritime Resources of the South Pacific, Santiago, 18 August 1952 2/

1. Governments are bound to ensure for their peoples access to necessary food supplies and to furnish them with the means of developing their economy.
2. It is therefore the duty of each Government to ensure the conservation and protection of its natural resources and to regulate the use thereof to the greatest possible advantage of its country.
3. Hence it is likewise the duty of each Government to prevent the said resources from being used outside the area of its jurisdiction so as to endanger their existence, integrity and conservation to the prejudice of peoples so situated geographically that their seas are irreplaceable sources of essential food and economic materials.

For the foregoing reasons the Governments of Chile, Ecuador and Peru, being resolved to preserve for and make available to their respective peoples the natural resources of the areas of sea adjacent to their coasts, hereby declare as follows:

(I) Owing to the geological and biological factors affecting the existence, conservation and development of the marine fauna and flora of the waters adjacent to the coasts of the declarant countries, the former extent of the territorial sea and contiguous zone is insufficient to permit of the conservation, development and use of those resources, to which the coastal countries are entitled.

(II) The Governments of Chile, Ecuador and Peru therefore proclaim as a principle of their international maritime policy that each of them possesses sole sovereignty and jurisdiction over the area of sea adjacent to the coast of its own country and extending not less than 200 nautical miles from the said coast.

(III) Their sole jurisdiction and sovereignty over the zone thus described includes sole sovereignty and jurisdiction over the sea floor and sub-soil thereof.

(IV) The zone of 200 nautical miles shall extend in every direction from any island or group of islands forming part of the territory of a declarant country. The maritime zone of an island or group of islands belonging to one declarant country and situated less than 200 nautical miles from the general maritime zone of another declarant country shall be bounded by the parallel of latitude drawn from the point at which the land frontier between the two countries reaches the sea.

(V) This Declaration shall not be construed as disregarding the necessary restrictions on the exercise of sovereignty and jurisdiction imposed by international law to permit the innocent and inoffensive passage of vessels of all nations through the zone aforesaid.

2. Agreement 1/ supplementary to the Declaration of Sovereignty over the Maritime Zone of Two Hundred Miles, signed at the Second Conference on the Exploitation and Conservation of the Maritime Resources of the South Pacific, Lima, 4 December 1954 2/

Chile, Ecuador and Peru have proclaimed their sovereignty over the sea adjacent to the coasts of their respective countries to a distance of not less than 200 nautical miles from the said coasts, the sea-bed and the sub-soil of this maritime zone being included;

Now therefore the said plenipotentiaries hereby agree as follows:

1. Chile, Ecuador and Peru shall consult with one another for the purpose of upholding, in law, the principle of their sovereignty over the maritime zone to a distance of not less than 200 nautical miles, including the sea-bed and the sub-soil corresponding thereto. The term "nautical mile" means the equivalent of one minute of the arc measured on the Equator, or a distance of 1,852.8 metres.
2. If any complaints or protests should be addressed to any of the Parties, or if proceedings should be instituted against a Party in a court of law or in an arbitral tribunal, whether possessing general or special jurisdiction, the contracting countries undertake to consult with one another concerning the case to be presented for the defence and furthermore bind themselves to co-operate fully with one another in the joint defence.
3. In the event of a violation of the said maritime zone by force, the State affected shall report the event immediately to the other Contracting Parties for the purpose of determining what action should be taken to safeguard the sovereignty which has been violated.
4. Each of the Contracting Parties undertakes not to enter into any agreements, arrangements or conventions which imply a diminution of the sovereignty over the said zone, though this provision shall not prejudice their rights to enter into agreements or to conclude contracts which do not conflict with the common rules laid down by the contracting countries.

5. All the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be an integral and supplementary part of, and not in any way to abrogate, the resolutions and decisions adopted at the Conference on the Exploitation and Conservation of the Maritime Resources of the South Pacific, held at Santiago de Chile, in August 1952.

C. BILATERAL TREATIES

Agreement 1/ between the Government of the Republic of Finland and the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics concerning the boundaries of sea areas and of the continental shelf in the Gulf of Finland. Signed at Helsinki, on 20 May 1965 2/

.....

Having regard to the Geneva Conventions of 1958 on the Territorial Sea and the Contiguous Zone and on the Continental Shelf,

Article 1

The Contracting Parties agree that the sea frontier between Finland and the USSR and the boundaries of Finnish and Soviet territorial waters in the section of the Gulf of Finland to the north-east of the island of Suursaari (Gogland) shall be drawn as follows:

The sea frontier between the Republic of Finland and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics shall follow a straight line in a south-westerly direction from the terminal point of the sea frontier fixed in 1940 and confirmed by the 1947 Treaty of Peace with Finland, whose co-ordinates are 60°15'35" north latitude and 27°30'43" east longitude, to the point whose co-ordinates are 60°13'42" north latitude and 27°27'50" east longitude and shall then turn and follow a straight line

1/ Registered with the Secretariat of the United Nations on 6 July 1966 under No. 8238.

2/ Came into force on 25 May 1966.

in a west-south-westerly direction to the point whose co-ordinates are $60^{\circ}12'19''$ north latitude and $27^{\circ}18'01''$ east longitude, which shall be the terminal point of the sea frontier between Finland and the Soviet Union.

From the aforementioned terminal point of the sea frontier, the boundary of Soviet territorial waters shall follow a straight line in a south-westerly direction to the point, situated on the boundary of Soviet territorial waters fixed in 1940 and confirmed by the 1947 Treaty of Peace with Finland whose co-ordinates are $60^{\circ}08'49''$ north latitude and $27^{\circ}04'36''$ east longitude.

The boundary of Finnish territorial waters shall follow a straight line in a westerly direction from the aforementioned terminal point of the sea frontier to the point, situated on the boundary of Finnish territorial waters fixed in 1940 and confirmed by the 1947 Treaty of Peace with Finland, whose co-ordinates are $60^{\circ}12'19''$ north latitude and $27^{\circ}13'49''$ east longitude.

Article 2

The Contracting Parties agree not to extend their fishing and other areas in the section of the Gulf of Finland to the north of the island of Suursaari (Gogland) beyond a line marking the middle of the water area between the boundaries of Finnish and Soviet territorial waters fixed in 1940 and confirmed by the 1947 Treaty of Peace with Finland.

The said line shall begin at the point whose co-ordinates are $60^{\circ}10.6'$ north latitude and $27^{\circ}11.3'$ east longitude and run in a generally westerly direction through the point whose co-ordinates are $60^{\circ}10.6'$ north latitude and $26^{\circ}57.9'$ east longitude and the point whose co-ordinates are $60^{\circ}10.4'$ north latitude and $26^{\circ}54.9'$ east longitude to the point whose co-ordinates are $60^{\circ}08.8'$ north latitude and $26^{\circ}47.9'$ east longitude, which shall be the initial point of the median line in the section of the Gulf of Finland to the west of the island of Suursaari (Gogland).

Article 3

The Contracting Parties agree not to extend their territorial waters or their fishing and other areas in the section of the Gulf of Finland to the west of the island of Suursaari (Gogland) beyond the median line passing through the points whose geographical co-ordinates are the following:

60°08.8' north latitude and 26°47.9' east longitude, 60°06.8' north latitude and 26°38.4' east longitude, 60°06.4' north latitude and 26°32.6' east longitude, 60°00.0' north latitude and 26°20.8' east longitude, 59°59.4' north latitude and 26°13.1' east longitude, 59°58.4' north latitude and 26°08.4' east longitude, 59°52.08' north latitude and 25°58.5' east longitude, 59°52.9' north latitude and 25°28.08' east longitude, 59°53.6' north latitude and 25°10.6' east longitude, 59°52.4' north latitude and 24°57.6' east longitude, 59°50.8' north latitude and 24°49.7' east longitude, 59°44.5' north latitude and 24°24.8' east longitude, 59°37.4' north latitude and 23°54.8' east longitude, 59°31.9' north latitude and 23°30.1' east longitude, 59°32.0' north latitude and 23°10.0' east longitude.

III. LIMITS AND SCOPE OF NATIONAL JURISDICTION
OVER THE CONTINENTAL SHELF

A. MULTILATERAL TREATIES OF A GENERAL CHARACTER

Convention on the Continental Shelf, done
at Geneva on 29 April 1958 1/

Article 1

For the purpose of these articles, the term "continental shelf" is used as referring (a) to the seabed and subsoil of the submarine areas adjacent to the coast but outside the area of the territorial sea, to a depth of 200 metres or, beyond that limit, to where the depth of the superjacent waters admits of the exploitation of the natural resources of the said areas; (b) to the seabed and subsoil of similar submarine areas adjacent to the coasts of islands.

Article 2

1. The coastal State exercises over the continental shelf sovereign rights for the purpose of exploring it and exploiting its natural resources.
2. The rights referred to in paragraph 1 of this article are exclusive in the sense that if the coastal State does not explore the continental shelf or exploit its natural resources, no one may undertake these activities, or make a claim to the continental shelf, without the express consent of the coastal State.
3. The rights of the coastal State over the continental shelf do not depend on occupation, effective or notional, or on any express proclamation.
4. The natural resources referred to in these articles consist of the mineral and other non-living resources of the seabed and subsoil together with living organisms belonging to sedentary species, that is to say, organisms which, at the harvestable stage, either are immobile on or under the seabed or are unable to move except in constant physical contact with the seabed or the subsoil.

Article 3

The rights of the coastal State over the continental shelf do not affect the legal status of the superjacent waters as high seas, or that of the air space above those waters.

1/ United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 499, p. 312.

Article 4

Subject to its right to take reasonable measures for the exploration of the continental shelf and the exploitation of its natural resources, the coastal State may not impede the laying or maintenance of submarine cables or pipe lines on the continental shelf.

Article 5

1. The exploration of the continental shelf and the exploitation of its natural resources must not result in any unjustifiable interference with navigation, fishing or the conservation of the living resources of the sea, nor result in any interference with fundamental oceanographic or other scientific research carried out with the intention of open publication.
2. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 6 of this article, the coastal State is entitled to construct and maintain or operate on the continental shelf installations and other devices necessary for its exploration and the exploitation of its natural resources, and to establish safety zones around such installations and devices and to take in those zones measures necessary for their protection.
3. The safety zones referred to in paragraph 2 of this article may extend to a distance of 500 metres around the installations and other devices which have been erected, measured from each point of their outer edge. Ships of all nationalities must respect these safety zones.
4. Such installations and devices, though under the jurisdiction of the coastal State, do not possess the status of islands. They have no territorial sea of their own, and their presence does not affect the delimitation of the territorial sea of the coastal State.
5. Due notice must be given of the construction of any such installations, and permanent means for giving warning of their presence must be maintained. Any installations which are abandoned or disused must be entirely removed.
6. Neither the installations or devices, nor the safety zones around them, may be established where interference may be caused to the use of recognized sea lanes essential to international navigation.
7. The coastal State is obliged to undertake, in the safety zones, all appropriate measures for the protection of the living resources of the sea from harmful agents.

8. The consent of the coastal State shall be obtained in respect of any research concerning the continental shelf and undertaken there. Nevertheless, the coastal State shall not normally withhold its consent if the request is submitted by a qualified institution with a view to purely scientific research into the physical or biological characteristics of the continental shelf, subject to the proviso that the coastal State shall have the right, if it so desires, to participate or to be represented in the research, and that in any event the results shall be published.

Article 6

1. Where the same continental shelf is adjacent to the territories of two or more States whose coasts are opposite each other, the boundary of the continental shelf appertaining to such States shall be determined by agreement between them. In the absence of agreement, and unless another boundary line is justified by special circumstances, the boundary is the median line, every point of which is equidistant from the nearest points of the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea of each State is measured.
2. Where the same continental shelf is adjacent to the territories of two adjacent States, the boundary of the continental shelf shall be determined by agreement between them. In the absence of agreement, and unless another boundary line is justified by special circumstances, the boundary shall be determined by application of the principle of equidistance from the nearest points of the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea of each State is measured.
3. In delimiting the boundaries of the continental shelf, any lines which are drawn in accordance with the principles set out in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article should be defined with reference to charts and geographical features as they exist at a particular date, and reference should be made to fixed permanent identifiable points on the land.

Article 7

The provisions of these articles shall not prejudice the right of the coastal State to exploit the subsoil by means of tunnelling irrespective of the depth of water above the subsoil.

Note: Reference may also be made to the following multilateral treaty of a regional character: the International Convention for the Northwest Atlantic Fisheries done at Washington on 8 February 1949 (United Nations Treaty Series, vol. 157, p. 158). By the Declaration signed at Washington on 24 April 1961 (ibid., vol. 480, p. 334), the Governments parties to this Convention "declare their understanding that the words 'fish', 'fishes', 'fishery', 'fisheries', and 'fishing' as they appear in the Convention include and apply to Mollusks, as well as finny fish".

B. BILATERAL TREATIES

1. Treaty^{1/} between the Kingdom of the Netherlands and the Federal Republic of Germany concerning the lateral delimitation of the continental shelf in the vicinity of the coast. Signed at Bonn, on 1 December 1964 2/

Article 1

(1) Up to fifty-fourth parallel of north latitude, the boundary between the Netherlands and German parts of the continental shelf of the North Sea shall run from the northern end of the line which was agreed upon in the Supplementary Agreement of 14 May 1962 to the Ems-Dollard Treaty of 8 April 1960, and which divides the frontier area of the Ems Estuary lengthwise, along the shortest line passing through points E_1 and E_2 to point E_3 .

(2) The co-ordinates of the points (according to German marine charts No. 50, July 1956 edition, and No. 90, May 1964 edition) are the following:

Point E_1 : $53^{\circ}45'06''$ N, $6^{\circ}19'56''$ E;

Point E_2 : $53^{\circ}48'56''$ N, $6^{\circ}15'49''$ E;

Point E_3 : $54^{\circ}00'00''$ N, $6^{\circ}06'26''$ E.

2. Agreement^{1/} between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of the Kingdom of Norway relating to the delimitation of the continental shelf between the two countries. Signed at London on 10 March 1965 2/

Article 1

The dividing line between that part of the continental shelf which appertains to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and that part which appertains to the Kingdom of Norway shall be based, with certain minor divergencies for administrative convenience, on a line, every point of which is equidistant from the nearest points of the baselines from which the territorial sea of each country is measured.

Article 2

(1) In implementation of the principle set forth in Article 1, the dividing line shall be arcs of Great Circles between the following points, in the sequence given below:

Point 1. 56°05'12" N., 3°15'00" E.

Point 2. 56°35'42" N., 2°36'48" E.

(2) The dividing line has been drawn on the chart annexed to this Agreement.

1/ United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 551, p. 214.

2/ Came into force on 29 June 1965.

Article 3

(1) In the south the termination point of the dividing line shall be point No. 1., which is the point of intersection of the dividing lines between the Continental Shelves of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Kingdom of Norway and the Kingdom of Denmark. The position of the above-mentioned point No. 1 shall be subject to acceptance by the Kingdom of Denmark.

(2) For the time being the Contracting Parties have not deemed it necessary to draw the dividing line further north than point No. 8.

Article 4

If any single geological petroleum structure or petroleum field, or any single geological structure or field of any other mineral deposit, including sand or gravel, extends across the dividing line and the part of such structure or field which is situated on one side of the dividing line is exploitable, wholly or in part, from the other side of the dividing line, the Contracting Parties shall, in consultation with the licensees, if any, seek to reach agreement as to the manner in which the structure or field shall be most effectively exploited and the manner in which the proceeds deriving therefrom shall be apportioned.

Article 5

This Agreement shall not affect the status of the superjacent waters or air space above.

Protocol

The Danish-German negotiations conducted at the instance of Germany concerning the delimitation of the continental shelf adjacent to the Danish and German coast have disclosed that there are differences of views concerning the principles of delimitation of the continental shelf of the North Sea. Agreement could be reached only on the course of the boundary line of the continental shelf in the coastal regions; each Contracting Party reserves its legal position with respect to the further course of the boundary line.

With respect to the continental shelf adjacent to the coasts of the Baltic Sea opposite each other, it is agreed that the boundary shall be determined according to the median line. Each Contracting Party accordingly declares that it will raise no objections of principle if the other Contracting Party delimits its portion of the continental shelf of the Baltic Sea on the basis of the median line.

5. Agreement^{1/} between the Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland relating to the Delimitation of the Continental Shelf under the North Sea between the two countries. Signed at London, on 6 October 1965 2/

Agreement^{1/} between the Government of the Kingdom of the Netherlands and the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland relating to the exploitation of single geological structures extending across the Dividing Line on the Continental Shelf under the North Sea. Signed at London on 6 October 1965 2/

Having reached agreement on the delimitation of the Continental Shelf under the North Sea between the two countries;

Desiring to regulate certain matters of common interest with regard to the exploitation of single geological structures extending across the dividing line;

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1

If any single geological mineral oil or natural gas structure or field extends across the dividing line and the part of such structure or field which is situated on one side of the dividing line is exploitable, wholly or in part, from the other side of the dividing line, the Contracting Parties will seek to reach agreement as to the manner in which the structure or field shall be most effectively exploited and the manner in which the costs and proceeds relating thereto shall be apportioned, after having invited the licensees concerned, if any, to submit agreed proposals to this effect.

1/ Registered with the Secretariat of the United Nations on 17 April 1967 under No. 98615.

2/ Came into force on 23 December 1966.

Article 2

Where a structure or field referred to in Article 1 of this Agreement is such that failure to reach agreement between the Contracting Parties would prevent maximum ultimate recovery of the deposit or lead to unnecessary competitive drilling, then any question upon which the Contracting Parties are unable to agree concerning the manner in which the structure or field shall be exploited or concerning the manner in which the costs and proceeds relating thereto shall be apportioned, shall, at the request of either Contracting Party, be referred to a single Arbitrator to be jointly appointed by the Contracting Parties. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be binding upon the Contracting Parties.

Article 3

The Contracting Parties shall, at the request of either, consult regarding the extension of this Agreement to mineral deposits other than those referred to in Article 1 of this Agreement.

7. Agreement^{1/} concerning the Delimitation of the Continental Shelf between Denmark and Norway. Signed at Oslo on 8 December 1965 2/

The Government of the Kingdom of Denmark and the Government of the Kingdom of Norway, having decided to fix the common frontier between the portions of the continental shelf over which Denmark and Norway, respectively, exercise sovereignty in so far as the exploration and utilization of natural resources are concerned, have agreed as follows:

Article 1

The boundary between that portion of the continental shelf over which sovereignty is exercised by Denmark and Norway, respectively, shall be the median line which at every point is situated at an equal distance from the nearest point on the base lines from which the width of the outer territorial waters of the Contracting Parties is measured.

^{1/} Being registered with the Secretariat of the United Nations.

^{2/} Came into force on 22 June 1966.

Article 2

In order that the principle set out in article 1 may be properly applied, the boundary shall be drawn in the form of straight lines (compass lines) through the following points in the sequence indicated:

| | | |
|---------|-------------|-------------|
| Point 1 | 58° 15.8' N | 10° 02.0' E |
| " 2 | 57° 59.3' N | 9° 23.0' E |
| " 3 | 57° 41.8' N | 8° 53.3' E |
| " 4 | 57° 37.1' N | 8° 27.5' E |
| " 5 | 57° 29.9' N | 7° 59.0' E |
| " 6 | 57° 10.5' N | 6° 56.2' E |
| " 7 | 56° 35.5' N | 5° 02.0' E |

The aforementioned geographical co-ordinates refer to the attached Norwegian hydrographic chart No. 301, 1941 edition, printed in November 1963, on which the boundary lines are marked. The chart constitutes an integral part of the present Agreement.

Article 3

—The terminal points of the Danish-Norwegian boundary line shall be the points at which the said line meets the boundary line for the portions of the continental shelf belonging to other States.

The Contracting Parties intend, if necessary, to fix these points definitively after consultation with the third country concerned.

Article 4

If it is established that natural resources of the sea-bed or the subsoil thereof, extend over both sides of the boundary between the continental shelf of the Contracting Parties with the result that deposits situated in the territory of one Party can be completely or partially worked from the territory of the other Party, an agreement shall be made, at the request of one of the Contracting Parties, concerning the utilization of the said natural resources.
