Twenty-fourth session

Council session, part II

Kingston, 16–20 July 2018

Agenda item 8

Report of the Secretary-General on the status of national legislation relating to deep seabed mining and related matters, including a comparative study of existing national legislation

Laws, regulations and administrative measures adopted by sponsoring States and other members of the International Seabed Authority with respect to the activities in the Area, and related matters, including a comparative study of existing national legislation

Report of the Secretary-General

1. At the seventeenth session of the International Seabed Authority, in 2011, the Council of the Authority requested the Secretary-General to prepare a report on the laws, regulations and administrative measures adopted by sponsoring States and other members of the Authority with respect to the activities in the Area, and invited sponsoring States and other members of the Authority, as appropriate, to provide information on or the texts of relevant national laws, regulations and administrative measures to the secretariat (ISBA/17/C/20, para. 3).
2. The Secretary-General submitted such a report to the Council at the eighteenth session of the Authority, in 2012 (ISBA/18/C/8 and ISBA/18/C/8/Add.1). After consideration of the report, the Council made the matter a standing item on its agenda and requested the Secretary-General to prepare an updated report annually for consideration by the Council. Those subsequent reports are contained in documents ISBA/18/C/8 and ISBA/18/C/8/Add.1, ISBA/19/C/12, ISBA/20/C/11 and ISBA/20/C/11/Add.1, ISBA/21/C/7, ISBA/22/C/8, and ISBA/23/C/6. The updates are also incorporated into an online database (www.isa.org.jm/national-legislation-database).
3. At the twenty-third session of the Authority, in 2017, the Assembly of the Authority adopted a decision relating to the final report on the first periodic review of the international regime of the Area pursuant to article 154 of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, in which it invited States parties sponsoring activities in the Area, if they had not already done so, to review their respective national legislation to control activities by entities with whom they had entered into contracts for exploration, drawing on the advisory opinion of the Seabed Disputes Chamber of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ISBA/23/A/13, sect. B). In the same decision, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to continually update, as necessary, the compilation of the relevant national laws, regulations and administrative measures of sponsoring States with respect to activities in the Area (ibid., sect. E, para. 2).

4. Since the most recent report on the subject, the Netherlands indicated in a note verbale dated 26 June 2017 that no national laws, regulations and administrative measures with respect to activities in the Area were in force and that measures were under development to enable the sponsoring of activities in the Area. Brazil submitted a note verbale dated 11 August 2017 containing information on its legislation on research and exploitation of seabed resources.

5. In a note verbale dated 26 March 2018, the secretariat reiterated its invitation to sponsoring States and other members of the Authority to submit to the secretariat the texts of relevant national laws, regulations and administrative measures or related information. On 19 April 2018, Tuvalu submitted a note verbale with the text of its national law, the Tuvalu Seabed Minerals Act, 2014. On 26 April 2018, China submitted a note verbale with three administrative regulations issued by the State Oceanic Administration, on licensing for exploration and exploitation activities in the Area, sample management and information management, respectively. On 3 May 2018, Montenegro provided legislation relating to the law of the sea. In a note verbale dated 28 May 2018 from the Permanent Mission of the Russian Federation to the International Seabed Authority, the secretariat was informed that activities for the development of mineral resources in the Area were now regulated in accordance with the presidential decree No. 2099 of 22 November 1994 on the activities of Russian physical and legal entities related to the exploration and development of mineral resources of the seabed outside the continental shelf and government decree No. 410 of 25 April 1995 on the procedure of activities of Russian physical and legal entities related to the development of mineral resources of the seabed outside the continental shelf. In the same note verbale, the secretariat was also informed that the Russian ministries and departments were conducting an analysis of existing regulations and international treaties implemented by the Russian Federation and other member States of the Authority to further develop a legal and regulatory framework with respect to activities in the Area. In a note verbale dated 5 June 2018, the Permanent Mission of Mexico to the International Seabed Authority conveyed the comments and updated information submitted by the Secretariat of Environment and Natural Resources of Mexico, the Secretariat of Economy of Mexico and the Mexican Geological Service.

6. As at 5 June 2018, a total of 31 States had provided information on or the texts of relevant national legislation, namely: Belgium, Brazil, China, Cook Islands, Cuba, Czechia, Dominican Republic, Fiji, France, Georgia, Germany, Guyana, India, Japan, Kiribati, Mexico, Montenegro, Nauru, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nigeria, Niue, Oman, Republic of Korea, Russian Federation, Singapore, Tonga, Tuvalu, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America and Zambia. Submissions had also been received from the Pacific Community. A list of national legislation and related information is annexed to the present report. Further information on and the texts of national laws, regulations and administrative measures submitted by the aforementioned member and observer States of the Authority are available from the Authority's online database. The secretariat will continue to update the online database as new information is received.

7. In addition, in its decision relating to the final report on the first periodic review of the international regime of the Area pursuant to article 154 of the Convention, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to provide the Council with a comparative study of the existing national legislation with a view to deriving common elements therefrom before the end of 2018 (ISBA/23/A/13, sect. E, para. 3). In response, a comparative study is ongoing and its completion is due by the end of 2018. It will be submitted for consideration by the Council in 2019.

8. The Council is invited to take note of the present report.
