		Document reviewed
Title of	the draft	Draft Guidelines for the establishment of baseline environmental data
being re	eviewed:
Contact information
Surname:
Given Name: Government (if applicable):
Organization (if		Institute of Marine Affairs
applicable):
Country:
E-mail:
General Comments
used for to the p	measurin hysical and	ve and useful document, particularly in terms of the methodology that can be g variables in the various sections. However, the data collection is geared only d biological environments. No consideration is made if the 'region of interest' any exploited fisheries.
conditic It could	ons noted t be noted s	he other related guidelines whether the socio-economic environment he possible exploitation of fish resources and resulting potential disruptions. comewhere in the document that older technology/ methods may be assessed ther they would be suitable for the purposes.
		· · ·
Specific Comments
Page	Line	Comment
2	4	Baseline data on the Socioeconomic/ sociocultural environment should also be obtained, including but not limited to, oil and gas activities, shipping and maritime operations, historical and archaeological sites. Air quality characterization should also be included.
20	695	Hydrocarbons including polycyclic aromatic hydrocarbons should be included in the list of variables to be determined.
38	1492	Include marine reptiles after birds
41	1641	Possibly describe the mesh sizes of the macroplankton net and the mesh sizes of the multiple cod ends.		