4. In implementing paragraph 1, the Sponsoring State and Contractor shall maintain consultations, including a system of prior notification, with any coastal State across whose jurisdiction resource deposits in the Area lie or otherwise has jurisdiction over a maritime zone that is adjacent to the location of the mining operation in the Area, with a view to avoiding infringement of their rights and interests, including in accordance with Regulation 4.

4. Please indicate the rationale for the proposal. [150 word limit]

Draft regulation 4, as currently drafted, refers to protection measures in respect of any “coastal States” whose maritime zones could suffer Serious Harm from activities in the Area, without limiting that reference to just those coastal States across whose jurisdictions resource deposits in the Area lie. In our view, this expansive view in draft regulation 4 is the appropriate framework within which to address the rights, interests, and potential impacts on coastal States from activities in the Area, given the connectivity (ecological, physiochemical, biological, cultural, etc.) of the Marine Environments of the Area (and the water column above the Area) on the one hand, and adjacent maritime zones under the jurisdiction of coastal States on the other hand. We also propose inserting the word “including” in the last sentence of paragraph 4, to clarify that the rights and interests of coastal States in this regard are not limited to the ones addressed in the specific context of draft regulation 4.

We have made a similar proposal for draft regulation 46bis(7), which we submitted on 15 April 2022.
