

Ambassador Dwight C.R. Gardiner

Ambassador Dwight C.R. Gardiner OBE is currently the Director/Registrar-General of the Antigua and Barbuda Department of Marine Services and Merchant Shipping (ADOMS), the Maritime Administration of Antigua and Barbuda, and Permanent Representative of Antigua and Barbuda to the International Maritime Organization and International Seabed Authority.

Ambassador Gardiner is an Attorney-at-Law and Notary Public who also holds a Bachelor of Science in Applied Technology majoring in Marine Technology with Honours from the Florida Institute of Technology, a Bachelor of Laws with Honours from the University of Buckingham, United Kingdom, and a Master of Science in Maritime Safety Administration (Nautical) from the World Maritime University (WMU). He was accorded the award of Outstanding Alumnus of the WMU in 2013 and is a current member of the WMU Board of Governors.

Ambassador Gardiner has been involved in the maritime sector of Antigua & Barbuda and the Caribbean region for over 35 years. His experience includes various senior positions in the Antigua & Barbuda maritime administration, as well as being a Commissioner of the Antigua & Barbuda Port Authority, Chair of the National Ocean Governance Committee, Chair of the National Maritime Boundaries Delimitation Committee, and former Chair of the Caribbean MOU on Port State Control.